MINOR BUTLER 381-B
 1215 E. Second Avenue
 Aurora, Illinois 60515

MINOR received two plaques - one recognizing him as founder of the Association (1958) and the other for serving as the first president.

*****

SAM BENSON 381-D
 1725 Travis Street
 Waco, Texas 76711

SAM was mildly stunned when he realized that he had been chosen distinguished DEADEYE. The citation was read by President BREECE:

“The placement of our plaque in Waco, Texas, was an event of historical significance for the Association. By being a man who can be counted on rather than counted out, you have demonstrated the DEADEYE way of doing things, both as a member in the ranks and as an officer of the Association.”

INFANTRY IN INDIANAPOLIS

Situation In Hand While DEADEYES Stage Reunion

Seventeen reunions. Counting them one at a time, a lot of different cities have been visited, thousands of people have participated and countless stories have been told by men of the 96th Division.

There were 433 DEADEYES, not counting families, who signed in in Indianapolis. Revelry started among small groups and spread throughout the place as infantrymen infiltrated native hangouts. Some of the early birds for the annual get-together showed up on Wednesday to garrison the town, but this was to be a peaceful invasion and hospitality abounded.

DEADEYES are men of action

CHICAGO POLICE CHIEF NO STRANGER

He was graduated in 1938 from St. Michael High School at age 16, attended DePaul University and Wright College and, after a brief period at Western Electric, he joined the Army in 1942, assigned to the 96th Infantry Division.

SUPT. JAMES ROCHFORD

In the assaults on Leyte and Okinawa, Rochford distinguished himself as a front line fighter, earning the Bronze Star and an Oak Leaf Cluster for valor.

He traded Army Khaki for "civvies" in 1946, but it was to be more than a year later, October 10, 1947, before he again donned a uniform, this time the blue of the Chicago Police Force.

*****

My younger daughter finished high school this year and tried to enlist in the 96th Ordnance (Reserve) here, but was turned down because of a bad knee. Shades of 4F, medical discharges, and Section VIII's.

Miller Hansen
321 Eng.

*****

I was glad to hear from you and will be forever grateful that you clued me in on the 96th. After being wounded on Leyte on October 20th, I was sent to New Guinea and from there back to the states. I have a 60 percent disability but am planning to attend the reunion in July. I hope you will be there so I can meet you. Your letter was like a letter from someone I knew long ago, Buddie. I'm glad to be back.

Walter W. Train

*****

The Second Armored Division Association will hold their Reunion in San Francisco at the New Jack Tar Hotel this year. A fire destroyed their mailing list and are requesting our help to rebuild it.

Let's pitch in DEADEYES, we could be in the same boat some day.

*****

With the release of the information on the acquisition of the Philippines Liberation Medal, there was a surge of requests. Carl G. Johnson seems to have been luckier than most when he received an answer to his request. The great demand has depleted the present supply, but will be refilled. Please have patience and make your request again.

Editor

*****

I was a member of the 7th Division and as you well know we were with the 96th in the Philippines. I had made contact with a number of DEADEYES there but can only recall the name of one a Sergeant White, whom I sure would like to contact. The reason I am writing this letter is to find out if any of the DEADEYES still have the envelopes of any of their letters that are postmarked from the Pacific. I am only interested in the envelope with the postmark.

Forrest W. Calkins
P.O. Box 1057
Grand Junction, Colorado

*****

I want to congratulate the people who have done an outstanding job in keeping the Division Association together. Attended Chicago and Denver Reunions and hope to make another soon. Kept up my Reserve work and will start drawing retired pay as a Lt. Col., in March, 1974.

Alan C. Poole

JIM BREECE passes the gavel to incoming President ED BIGGS for the year.

*****

The question is not today - - in fact it never has been - - whether or not Americans seek peace throughout the world. But rather the question is how do we as Americans gain that peace? How do we gain a peace which accomplishes more than just still the gunfire?

How do we gain a peace which will keep the guns silent - - and keep them silent throughout time? These conflicts should be remembered for a peace paid, not in dollars and cents - - for wealth can always be regained - - but the price paid in the quality of the life of all humans that were touched by the war.

We must emphasize not the problems which may stand before us as a potential split to the common goals of all Americans, but upon the common dedication and resolve to triumph over those problems that will gain a better life for us all. For each of us, our duty to seek that better life continues - - and it continues on a day to day basis, to achieve that goal, we must continue to work together and to positively emphasize the good - - the right and the just in our life. Reunions are wonderful things because they cause us all to reflect upon people, events, and times long gone by. They are times of great joy - - and they are times of great sadness. May the DEADEYE spirit of the 96th continue to be the bond which unites all of us in the enduring dedication to the goals of GOD and COUNTRY which saw America through CATMAN HILL -- KAKAZU -- SAW TOOTH RIDGE -- and the BIG APPLE.

*****

I have not been able to attend a reunion, much to my regret. I am writing in hopes that it will bring me into contact with many of my friends that I no longer have contact with.
